Bio

Born and raised in the NE Central area, Bee attended Columbus State Community College and has been a mentor for Big Brothers and Big Sisters for the school based and community based programs for the past 9 years. She is very active with youth, currently involved with St. Stephen's Community House for high school students who desire to become engineers. Her passion for helping the elderly leads her in quite a few directions as well.

She is a mother of two and have eight grandchildren, loves church, photography, music, art, travelling, fishing, sewing and cooking to name a few. She sits on her church's community board and is involved with the Columbus Foundation selection process of the "John E. Foster" scholarships.
